BUSINESS OFFER

Most businesses with over 20 employees are complex enough to have all processes fully controlled by one person, but as long as they don't have some 100-200 employees, having an in-house CFO is just too expensive.

By choosing AG Capital CFO Services, you pay for the expertise of an experienced finance professional only to the extent you really need. Our team is specialized in financial planning and analysis (budgeting, valuations, cashflow projections, results analysis), business plan development, finance attraction as well as candidate testing and corporate financial training services.

ABOUT THE COMPANY

AG Capital CFO Services, founded in 2009, is a financial services and advisory firm providing Chief Financial Officer services. Our team consists of ex-CFOs who have gained industry expertise from international clients and are holders of professional finance certifications (CFA, CFM, FMVA). We are also the founders of the Financial Modeling World Cup.
